100TH DAY OF SCHOOL

On Tuesday, January 24, Sahag-Mesrob students celebrated the 100th Day of School. Along with classroom projects and activities to commemorate the occasion, students were encouraged to dress according to what they thought a 100- year-old man or woman would look like. Many arrived at school wearing shawls, vests, glasses, and grey wigs, making them almost unrecognizable. Students and teachers enjoyed seeing each other's creative outfits.

CLASSROOM NEWS

MRS. ANI KAKOUSSIAN

1st Grade students celebrated the 100th Day of School by doing various activities throughout the day. We were able to write 100 words and students were given a challenge to make a tower with 100 plastic cups. We also had the opportunity to do some fun painting and writing activities throughout the month of January.

MRS. NARINEH KARAMANOUKIAN

Our third grade class finished reading “Charlie and the Chocolate Factory”. Students created a diorama of their favorite room in Willy Wonka’s factory. Students made their presentation, and our class had a “Chocolate Party” while watching the original movie of “Charlie and the Chocolate Factory”.

The third grade class has also been learning about the Solar System. Each student was assigned a planet to research and create a model. Students did a wonderful job creating their planets and presenting it to the class, along with five interesting facts! Great job third grade!

MRS. MARAL OHANIAN

In the month of January, fourth grade students began reading Island of the Blue Dolphins for their third quarter class novel. Students also learned about Chinese New Year and made lanterns to hang in the classroom. In Social Studies, students read about transportation and communication improving in California with the inventions of the railroad and telegraph.

Fifth grade students began reading The Phantom Tollbooth as their third quarter class novel. Students reviewed idioms and other figurative language, which appear throughout the book. Students also took their Unit 4 Language Test, and have been reviewing subjects, predicates, nouns, verbs, and pronouns.
